

Safety board using scrap material!

Team at Kodihalli site, Karnataka made 14 safety boards using scrap material from the site.

Good work!

Benefits:

- Reduced scrap and implemented 4R at site
- Increase in safety at site

Green heroes:

Santhosh SS, Nikethan patil,
Sumit ovhal, Uday kandolia
and 34MW Mitarsha team

QR code digitalisation!

Mr. Manoranjan Sahu from Jojobera implemented QR coding initiative of equipment for details, SOP, SLD at single point. This digitalisation initiative helped achieve paper savings at office. By scanning this QR code one can get the Gemba details, 5S action plan, floor diagram and equipment available in the floor starting from zero meter to top floor.

Good work

Benefits:

- Adoption to sustainable initiative
- Paper saving
- Process improvement
- 5S implementation

Green hero:
Manoranjan Sahu

Kitchen garden for Turmeric !

Mr. Bhushan Patil and his family planted turmeric in his kitchen garden at Khopoli residential area. They could harvest 3.5 kg of turmeric in seven sq. feet area.

Good work!

Benefits:

- As growing fruits and vegetables at home do not include any chemical, you save the environment as well.
- Kitchen Gardening is a fun activity that reduces mental stress in your busy working life.
- Turmeric is one of the main spices used in almost all of the Indian dishes. It is one of the most powerful herb on the planet, which helps fight diseases.

Green hero:
Bhushan Damaji Patil

Use of Project Scrap Material-Mini Mast for Area Lighting

With a motive to utilize waste or surplus material for project activities, Team MPL-FGD has successfully commissioned office area illumination by using surplus mast pole, available at the yard area. Total five mast poles has been erected with the use of project surplus/waste material.

Good work!

Benefits:

- Net saving of Rs 50,000/- approx. by utilizing the existing surplus mast poles.
- Recycling scrap materials reduces greenhouse emissions.
- Prevents pollution by using less energy
- Helps sustain the environment for future generations.
- Better housekeeping

Green heroes:
Partho Banerjee and Arnab Bose

Working platform at Rajapura site!

To avoid unsafe conditions at site, team made steel platform using scrap materials. With the reuse of scrap material, the platform costed only for Rs. 550.

Good work!

Benefits:

- Cost saving
- Scrap reutilisation
- Improvement in safety at site

Green heroes:

Partho Banerjee and Arnab Bose

Oil drum stand using scrap!

Team at Rajapura site developed oil drum stands using scrap material. It helps to reduce scrap material at site and avoid ingress of moisture inside the oil drum.

Good work!

Benefits:

- Scrap material recycling
- Cost saving
- Avoid ingress of moisture inside the oil drum

Green heroes:

Vinayak Kulkarni, T M Swamy,
Mitarsh Energy Pvt Ltd and Guardian Security Bureau