Do you have an hour for Earth?!

March 19, 2016 is Earth Hour day! What began off as a lights-off event in Sydney, Australia in 2007, has since grown to engage over 172 countries and territories globally. On the occasion this year, join Greenolution in its attempt to help reverse the impact of climate change. Participate in Greenolution's 'One Hour for Earth' campaign! To do so, turn off all unwanted electrical appliances and lights between 8:30 and 9:30pm on March 19, 2016 and send photos/videos of how you spent 'One Hour for Earth'! Best 5 entries stand a chance to exciting prizes and have their photos and videos played in the March episode of The Green Zine!
