COVER STORY

Green Diwali!

Lavishka Tiwari, Daughter of Namrata Joshi made an ecofriendly lantern using Old cardboard box, old gift wrapping paper.

Arjit Mishra, 4.5 year old son of Ms. Vibha Parashar from CGPL finance department made some decoration items with the guidance of his mother for Diwali from waste packing and gift papers.

Ms. Dhyana Karelia, Daughter of Mr. Gautam Karelia made a Eco-friendly Lantern on this Diwali from old gift papers , boxes , strings and recyclable material.

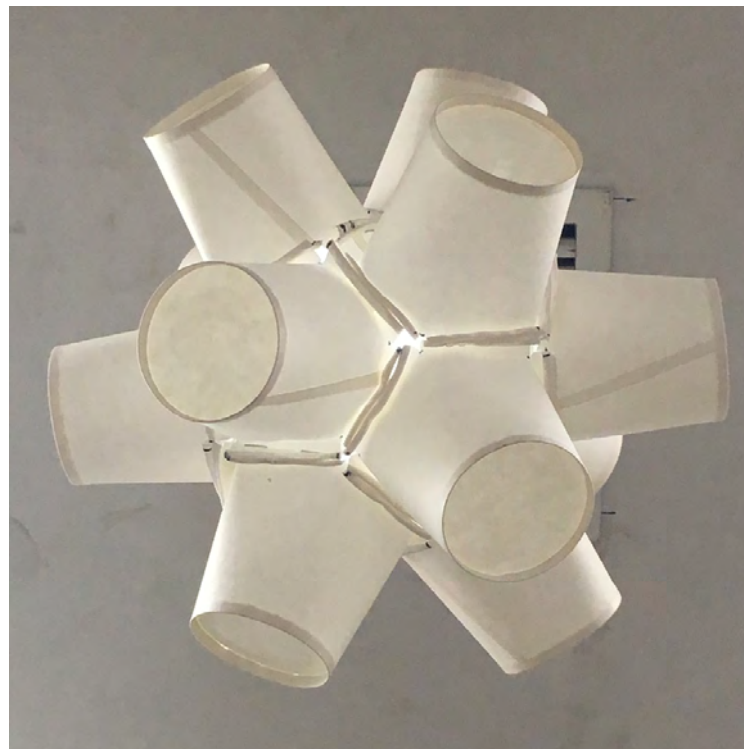

Ms. Tejaswita Paradkar and Mr Rohan Todankar from DNMG Metro have created paper lanterns for Office Decorations. These lanterns were used from the unwanted A4 Xerox paper covers which we normally throw in dustbins after the papers are used up.

Mr Sagar Sadamat of DNMG Metro Zone made Lantern from Tea Cups. Also, he has lightend the lantern from a rechargeable emergency LED bulb which operates when AC mains are shut down.

It operates on DC power which is stored within the bulb itself.

Mr. Gautam Karelia used natural colors instead of chemical colors and used natural ingredients to make Rangoli on this Diwali.

This Diwali Mr. Vishal Panchal from TPADL made Rangoli by fresh flowers and leaves and illuminate Diyas at home.

Mr. Ashok Kolapalli from BORL team made Rangoli with fresh flowers and leaves
